The Spirit is a Peaceful God | 25 June 2023

At the recent Shangri-La Dialogue held in Singapore, one prominent world leader made the comment that, given our tension and conflict-filled world, peace is not a gift. Peace is something that must be earned, fought for, and defended. While his comments make sense in rallying political allies against enemies, it is rather sad that the road to "peace" in the midst of "war" is by "fighting" for it.

We, however, believe that peace is a gift. More importantly, peace is a Person. Peace Incarnate stepped down into a world broken by conflict and war and death. Rather than fighting His way to the goal of peace, He surrendered His life. Thus, we call Jesus of Nazareth the Prince of Peace, who grants peace as a gift to all - not through fighting, but through humility and surrender.

Baptisms of Ashley and Chloe Ng

This week, we rejoiced once again as Ashley and Chloe Ng confessed their faith in the Lord Jesus and committed their lives to Him in baptism! They first joined the PP Youth Ministry during their 2021 Youth Camp and have been a huge blessing ever since.

To borrow the words of minister Irvin Wan, Ashley and Chloe embody the Revelational character of our God. They delight in sharing this God they have found and how good He is. They share this goodness with their family and friends, and all this before even making a commitment to join His family!

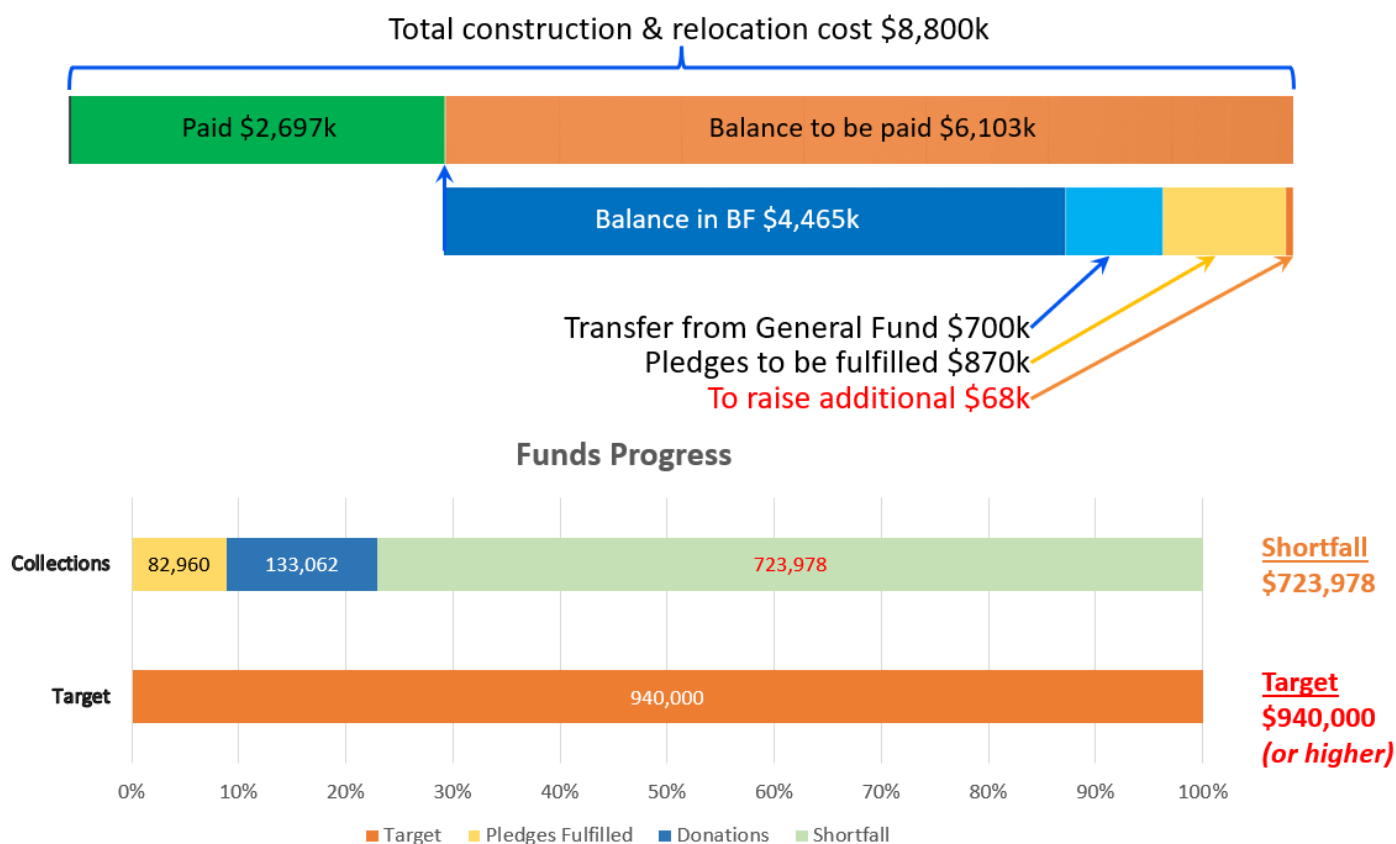

We celebrate with them and their family (parents Ken and Jessica and younger sister Ellie)! Welcome!

Sister Annie's Retirement

Today, as Sister Annie closes one chapter and begins another in her life, we want to take the opportunity to thank her for 40 years of faithful service as our church family's Administrator.

As our Administrator, Annie took pride in her work of providing office support to the ministers, leaders and members of our church family at PPCOC. Through the years, her duties included fielding telephone calls, receiving and directing visitors, and overseeing financial payments.

One trait that we will remember Annie for is her empathy for others. Concerned that all who join should feel welcome, Annie was always ready to greet members and visitors alike with her warm smile at our reception area, and to attend to any who had needs.

We thank God for Sister Annie and her service to God and our church family. We pray that God will bless her future with good health, the joy of continuing to serve, and gladness of a job well done.

With Great Affection and Gratitude,
from Your Church Family in PPCOC
