Sunday Morning Worship

Rising In Restoration | 25 May 2025

Do you have some people in your life that are just so hard to love? It feels like no matter how much you do for them, they never get better, but they keep sucking you dry of all your life and energy.

Maybe God looks at us humans like that. He certainly had good reason to feel that way about Peter, His most vocal, impulsive, sword-wielding disciple who is also so quick to deny Him. And yet, we see Jesus loving him anyway, restoring their relationship and commissioning him for more.

As Jesus restores us, we're called to restore others, feeding His sheep with the same care and compassion we've received. If God could restore me, even with all my wrongs and brokenness, God can certainly restore others too. I want to be a part of that. Don't you?

Table Spreading Challenge!

In line with our upcoming worship series on Table-Spreading, we want to celebrate our culture of being God's Table-Spreading people! We want to see your pictures and hear your stories of how God is spreading tables in your life.

Please send us your pictures of Table-Spreading, whether you're spreading Tables for others or if others are spreading a Table for you! Email us at hello@ppcoc.org and we hope to share as many stories as possible on Sunday morning!

Facility Requests

We have been delighted that many PP members have been wanting to make use of our facilities! Our rooms are frequently used, especially on Sunday mornings—virtually every room is being used!

To help us manage the space well, please send us a facility request in advance. The link and QR code to the form are on the last page. We hope to continue being a space where God's kingdom comes to life!
