Sunday Morning Worship

Table Manners | 22 June 2025

You can learn a lot about people (including yourself) from the way they eat. Chances are that, if they know how to handle forks, knives, spoons, and chopsticks, they would be well-mannered in real life. Table manners are a basic marker of education, intelligence, and human decency.

How do we conduct ourselves at God's Table? Does the way you gather, change, and extend the Table reveal that you have been saved and transformed by Jesus? If not, there might be some soul searching you need to do.

This week, we enjoy a special message from brother Evertt Huffard, Professor Emeritus at Harding School of Theology and Church Equipping Facilitator with Mission Resource Network. We're thankful for him and his wife, sister Ileene, for joining us and blessing us for the past two weeks!

Church Camp 2025

Church Camp 2025 was an incredible experience! We thank God for pouring out His Spirit as we discerned the New Beginnings that await us in our personal walks of faith and as a church family!

We express our appreciation to our camp photographers, brothers Larry Lim, Isaac Tay, and Caleb Leow for working to photograph beautiful memories for this camp! For those interested to view brother Larry's photographs, you can find them on his Flickr account - go to the address below or click the QR code here!

The church offers its condolences to the family of brother Tan Wee Meng on the passing of his father. He passed away on Thursday, 19 June and will be cremated on Sunday, 22 June, at 11:25am.

May God show mercy and grant comfort to this family in this time of grief. May we be a compassionate people who share the grace, peace, and comfort of Jesus in this season of bereavement.

Next Worship Series: Witness

For the next few weeks, our leaders will be preaching on the ways they have witnessed God's Spirit at work here at PPCOC! Their personal stories are the stories of how God showed up in their lives in powerful ways, transforming them into the people He called them to be.
