Sunday Morning Worship

Anchored In Christ | 6 July 2025

We are in a series where various church leaders preach on the ways they have witnessed God's Spirit at work in our church family. This week, our Youth will be leading the worship service, with brother Danzel Mariaraja preaching a message on God's faithfulness.

In our age of chaos, turmoil, and uncertainty, we crave stability. We desire to be anchored in something (or Someone) that will never change but will endure. Perhaps none feel this more keenly than Generation Z - today's teenagers and young adults.

Today, hear the youth of this church family proclaim the faithfulness of God and declare their allegiance to Him. May we all be encouraged by their example of faith!

Church Camp 25: International Encouragements

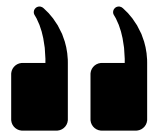

Our international guests who joined us at church camp express their gratitude to God and to PP for a wonderful camp! Here's a few snapshots of what they had to say:

Grateful to God for the wonderful time spent with you, dear brethren—worshiping the Lord together, encouraging one another in the Word, lifting each other up in prayer, and rejoicing in sweet fellowship throughout the camp and all the dinner fellowships. Praising God for each of you. May His grace continue to bind us in love and service.

Jhun Ma, Tuao, Philippines

The Camp has always been a great strength for us. There, we gain inspiration and momentum to pursue what God is leading us to do in missions and ministry.

We were inspired by the fellowship, mentoring, and counseling, where we could talk to mature Christians about our struggles and trials in our lives serving God in the mission fields. The lessons were also inspirational, as we could relate to PP's church values and redefine and remodel ours, including the churches or Christians we minister to.

Jojo & Janet Ramos, Baguio City, Philippines

God has revealed to us the importance of the Christian community that continues to uplift God's Word and apply them into their lives. I was reminded that in Christ there can be hope in new beginnings to start anew, refresh and recharge. The fellowship was encouraging and very warm. Overall, the camp was an answered prayer, and we were so blessed to be a part of it. Thank you and God bless!

Church Camp 25: International Encouragements

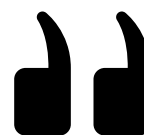

The PPCOC church camp is one of the best camps where Christians had good fellowship over food, singing, sermon and pray for each other. I experienced his power and presence as what had happened in Jerusalem 2025 years ago. The word of encouragement and prayers from PPCOC Christians gave me strength to do more of God's work in my village and the country as a whole. My takeaway from the camp is restorative and my new beginning is to live a life of reconciled person.

Arthur Tatara, Papua New Guinea

Throughout the camp, we spoke words of life to one another, shared our mission work with the PPCOC family, and experienced a deep sense of unity. I was especially inspired by the idea of Table-Spreading – creating space where others can feel welcomed, heard, and fed spiritually. I am committed to sharing this with the young people in our church, helping them grow in faith and purpose. I returned home with a renewed commitment to pray, respond to God's call, and walk faithfully into the vision He has for us.

Kiran Babu, India

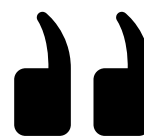

Encouraged by a wonderful and faithful congregation showing humility and hospitality and great lessons by brother Huffard and ensuing discussions. Our hearts and faith are very encouraged.

Vani Igo, Brisbane, Australia

I enjoyed the camp immensely and I appreciate the camp organizers greatly for their plans and arrangements. Especially the inspiring sermons by Evertt Huffard (all the six values enlightened me in my ministry), mesmerizing songs, and thought provoking discussions. I'm so blessed and benefited much from the PPCOC camp. I look forward to the next camp with my family. Thank you for inviting me and I look forward to partnering with PPCOC. Praying for you all.

Recap: Arts and Craft Interest Group

On 15 June 2025, the Arts and Crafts Interest Group organised a “Decoupage” workshop for crafting glass bowls and a Bible sharing session. We’re grateful to have had visitors and members from the FFF, Deaf, Chinese, & English congregations.

We thank God for the fellowship we enjoyed in church, for all the participants and for sis. Arial for conducting the workshop.

Recap: Culinary Interest Group

The Culinary Interest Group had a fun-filled fellowship on 28 June, attended by 25 people and 5 guests. The theme, “Let’s Do It Together!” speaks for itself. It was a hands-on experience of making achar, slicing, cutting and marinating of vegetables, cooking Nasi Lemak, frying fish and more! Sis. Kam Fong showed us how to stir fry sambal goreng and sis Iris juiced up some yummy and cooling drinks on a hot day! Finally, we feasted together, getting to know the guests.

What an amazing opportunity to experience the love of God in our midst!
