Sunday Morning Worship

Rest To Restart | 24 August 2025

Have you ever opened so many tabs and programs on your computer that it just stopped working? You have two options: to 'wait for the program to respond' (which almost never works) or to force the program to close and restart it. Thankfully, that one usually works.

We often feel like our lives are a Google Chrome window with too many open tabs, all competing for our attention. But God created us to give our attention and affections to only one person - Himself - and through Him we gain everything else. Perhaps we need the equivalent of a computer's "force restart" to get ourselves running well again.

Worship Better Together!

Every Sunday, we get to come before God as a people rescued from our sins and set free for a new life with our Lord Jesus Christ. We want to create an atmosphere where everyone can focus and participate well. Here's how you can contribute:

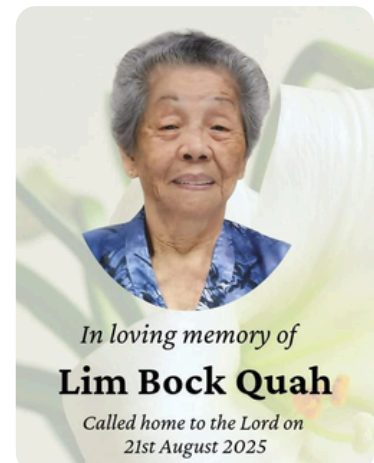

1. Families: We love having families together in worship, and we especially rejoice in the sounds of little ones among us! At the same time, parents, if you need a break, need to feed the kids, or if it's just one of those mornings where children are "extra energetic", please remember the Annex is available.
2. Food: We want to keep the auditorium as clean and conducive as we can. So please leave your food and drinks outside or finish them before coming in. Parents of young children: dry food is allowed in the back section. Just be careful to avoid any spills or crumbs falling to the floor.
3. Noise: Because worship is a time to be fully present with God, let's keep conversations and chitchat to before and after the service. If you've got your phone handy, now's a great time to put it on silent or turn it off entirely.

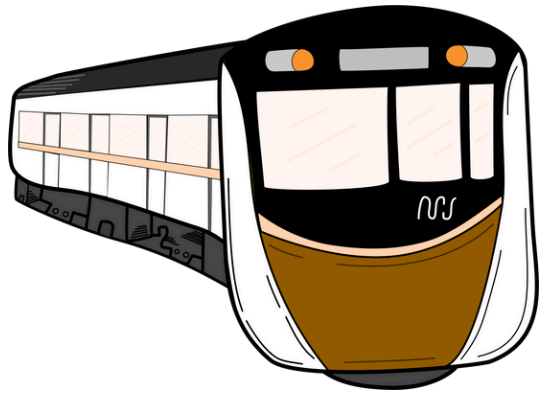

Condolences: Family of sis. Lim Bock Quah

We extend our condolences to the family of the late sister Lim Bock Quah, a member of our Chinese congregation. She passed on Thursday, 21 August. Our prayers are with her sons, brothers Timmy and Tommy Tng, and their families. May the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction be with them in this season.

Circle Line Late Opening: Plan Your Travels

From 5 September to 28 December, the Circle Line will be opening later at 9am on most weekends. If you take public transportation to church, please make the appropriate arrangements so that you can make it to church on time to join our Bible classes and worship services.
