

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

Seeing The Father's Love

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

Matthew 3:13–17

Our elders will be opening their homes to welcome members to celebrate the festive season together. It's a great time to enjoy treats, ang paos, and the fellowship of God's people!

A group of seven women of various ages are smiling and posing for a photo. They are standing in front of a large, colorful graphic. The graphic features the words 'New Beginnings' in a stylized font, with 'New' in a smaller font above 'Beginnings'. The background of the graphic includes illustrations of people in various settings, such as a person fishing, a person walking, and a person sitting. The women are dressed in casual attire, including t-shirts, a striped shirt, a red top, a green top, a pink top, and a floral top. One woman is wearing a yellow lanyard and a white cap. The overall atmosphere is warm and community-oriented.

Growing Forward: Embracing Our Asian Heritage in Gospel Mission

An Honor-Shame Workshop with Dr. Chris Flanders

Western missionaries brought us the gospel with deep sacrifice and love. Yet along with the good news came cultural frameworks—individualism, guilt-innocence, and American norms—that shaped how we read Scripture and engage in mission.

This workshop invites Singaporean and Malaysian Christians to rediscover the richness of our Asian heritage—honor-shame dynamics, communal identity, and relational wisdom—and explore how these can deepen our gospel witness.

Singapore is uniquely positioned: nearly half its residents are non-citizens, making our neighborhoods a vibrant mission field. We don't need to cross oceans to be missionaries; we can embody the gospel right here, in our own backyard.

Saturday, 7 February 2026

Workshop | 2:00–5:00pm

Sunday, 8 February 2026

Sermon + Class | 9:30am–12:30pm
